English Studies in Moroccan Higher Education:
Past, Present, and Future
Study Day in honor of former faculty
April 27, 2017

The Department of English Language and Literature at Mohammed V University in Rabat calls for paper presentations for its 2017 Study Day organized to pay homage to former faculty. The study day will provide an opportunity for young and established scholars in higher education in Morocco and abroad to discuss issues within the broad area of English studies, including English linguistics, literature, culture, and ELT.

The presentations are 15 minutes long. The deadline for submitting the abstracts is January 10, 2017. Faculty interested in presenting a paper are kindly requested to go to the link below and fill out the form:
